6 ♦ Quick Takes

Previews of upcoming films, groups on tour, television events and books.

9 ♦ Crossroads

This intriguing film, about two musicians on a quest for a long-lost blues song, is a departure for blood-and-action director Walter Hill.

10 ♦ NCAA Tournament Preview

By Bob Keisser. It's come a long way since it was an obscure tourney of eight teams. Now, college basketball's annual spring ritual is one of the most important events in sports.

12 ♦ Pullout Entertainment Calendar

Your guide to what's happening in entertainment.

14 ♦ Spring Film Roundup

This spring's new movie releases range from the birth of the Swinging Sixties in Absolute Beginners to a 400-year-old conflict in Highlander.

16 ♦ Brazil

By Bart Mills. Terry Gilliam is a "graduate" of Monty Python, which may explain why his new film has been so outrageously controversial. Meet the unpredictable director of Brazil.

18 ♦ Musical Notes

By Greg Ptacek. Are the Long Ryders the next great American band? Profiles of the Ryders and guitarist Charlie Sexton, as well as the latest news on records and groups.

20 ♦ Top Ten Unsigned Bands

By Chris Morris. They are unknowns, except in their local clubs and college radio stations, but that could change soon, thanks to a unique new album from Epic Records.

UCLA SPORTS INFORMATION

(Right) Jonathan Pryce as Sam Lowry, the down-trodden hero of Terry Gilliam's "Brazil," this spring's most controversial, and perhaps most interesting, film.

SHORT SUBJECTS

MISSION POSSIBLE

If you think your summer plans are going to keep you busy, consider the project Craig D. Reid, a Ph.D. student in entomology at the University of Illinois, has lined up for himself. Reid, a popular Teaching Assistant at UI, is planning to walk from Ithaca, New York to Los Angeles to call attention to and raise money for cystic fibrosis research.

A cystic fibrosis victim himself, Reid, at age 29, has managed so far to survive eight years beyond the life expectancy of 21 for CF patients. Assisted by two friends and a support team in vehicles, Reid will not only walk the 3,000 miles, but will also make numerous public speaking appearances for clubs and civic organizations along the route.

For information about the walk, or to invite Reid to appear on your campus, write Craig D. Reid, 2064 #B Orchard St., Urbana, IL, 61801.

IN THE GROOVE

National College Television (NCTV), the satellite programming service for campus cable systems, is joining students in heading to the beach for spring break. NCTV will broadcast a live Spring Break show, shot on location in Daytona Beach, Florida. In addition, during the spring break period, NCTV will present a live concert.

"New Grooves," their unique music video show featuring groups popular on college radio stations, has an interview lineup which includes Nick Rhodes of Arcadia, Kate Bush, Marshall Crenshaw and Chas Gray of Wall of Voodoo.

NCTV is a free programming service for campus cable systems, broadcasting 20 hours of programming each week.

"X" MARKS THE SPOT

The Student Government Association (SGA) at the University of Illinois recently defeated a proposal from its own Minority Committee that student organizations which present screenings of X-rated films lose their student discounts for advertising in the campus newspaper, The Daily Illini. X-rated films were the most profitable screenings for student groups during the past year.

The proposal had sparked a campus controversy concerning the right of free speech versus the charge that pornographic films present negative images of women. Although it decided against the Minority Committee proposal, the SGA announced that it would sponsor a showing of "Not a Love Story," a documentary film about the pornography industry.

BEER BUST

It may not be all fun, sun and beer along Fort Lauderdale's famed "Strip" this spring break. Local police will be enforcing a new law forbidding public drinking. Anyone caught drinking in public will be asked to empty their drink in the street; those who refuse will be arrested. "You'll be up to your ankles in beer, probably," said Fort Lauderdale Police Chief Ron Cochran. ♦
