

Police beat

The following is a list of University-area crimes reported to the Eugene Police Department since April 24:

The controls were damaged in an elevator at the University Inn between 10:30 p.m. April 23 and 1 a.m. April 24. Repairs were estimated at $300.

A Yamaha saxophone and a case containing related equipment was stolen from the School of Music between April 24-29. The items were valued at $1,464.

A wallet and contents valued at $76 was stolen from Hayward Field Monday at about 4 p.m.

A cassette stereo and speakers valued at $180 were stolen from a vehicle parked at 1544 Alder St. on Monday.

Events commemorate holocaust

University President Paul Olum will help kick off Holocaust Memorial Week Sunday, during the opening ceremonies at 4 p.m. in Room 167 EMU.

As part of "Days of Remembrance of the Victims of the Holocaust," Olum will give an opening address, followed by Dr. Sylvia Frankel, executive director of the Oregon Holocaust Resource Center, who will speak on holocaust literature.

Dr. Tom Nadar, a history professor from Oregon State University, will speak on the holocaust from its historical perspective.
