(Above) Horace Robinson, professor emeritus of theatre, stands in front of the campus theatre that bears his name and houses University Theatre. Robinson has been with the University since 1933 and has helped develop University

Theatre into an institution Eugene can regard with pride. (Top right) In 1892, Villard Hall was six years old. Robinson Theatre, built in the late 1940s, now stands facing Kincaid Street on the expanse of yard in front of the edifice.
