Many may be freed

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — A provincial court on Monday struck down two provisions that permit detentions under the state of emergency imposed June 12, raising the possibility that thousands of people could be freed.

President P.W. Botha's government reserved the right to appeal the ruling, issued in Durban by a three-judge panel of the Natal province supreme court. Anti-apartheid leaders said they feared the government would try to negate the decision through executive action.

150 saved in Atlantic

HALIFAX, Nova Scotia (AP) — Three Canadian fishing vessels rescued about 150 people who had been adrift in lifeboats in the Atlantic Ocean for five days after they abandoned their ship, a Canadian Armed Forces spokesman said.

Maj. Bill Whitehead told The Associated Press that the survivors — men, women and children — were Orientals, but their nationalities have not been determined because of language problems.

Arms talks open

MOSCOW (AP) — U.S. and Soviet delegations opened a special round of arms talks Monday with eight hours of discussions in a secluded mansion near Moscow. The Kremlin's chief negotiator, Viktor Karpov, said just before the talks began that the Soviets "would do anything" for a new summit, and he complained that the United States does not seem interested in arms control.

Moscow has said it wants some assurance of progress toward an arms control accord before it schedules another summit.

Aides tested for drugs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Drug-screening began in earnest at the White House on Monday, with Vice President George Bush and an undisclosed number of presidential aides taking part in the testing.

"It is, and should be, confidential," Deputy Press Secretary Larry Speakes told reporters, refusing to say how many aides volunteered or to speculate on the test results.

Cuba reports defection

WASHINGTON (AP) — A U.S. Army private who went absent without leave from his post in West Germany last month may have defected to Cuba, the Defense Department said Monday.

Responding to a report on Radio Havana, the Pentagon said it was investigating the possibility that the missing soldier, Pfc. Hugo Romeu, 31, of Glenview, Ill., "may indeed be the individual alluded to in the Cuban radio report."

Local lawyer gets nod

PORTLAND (AP) — Portland lawyer Diarmuid O'Scannlain will be nominated by President Reagan to a seat on the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, which O'Scannlain said Monday he views as the pinnacle of his law career.

The White House on Tuesday announced the president would appoint O'Scannlain to the appeals court.

Dean to judge contest

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Bernard Dobroski, dean of the School of Music at the University of Oregon, is among the eight judges who will choose Miss America 1986 next month, pageant officials said Monday.
