Kara-Boo, we see you, sitting on that virgin white porch. Hair of gold, 19 years old, wondering which frat house to crash. As boys walk by, you catch their eyes; of course, you just turn your head. Such a tease, they beg and plead, but, no thanks, you got a Kappa Sig. GDI? No, not I, you proudly do exclaim, but should your thighs balloon in size, won't those functions be to blame? Wear your pin and let us in, should we wish to raid your house. I'll take but a minute, we'll be careful while in it, why we won't even waken a mouse! Rushing and pledging, meetings and pinning: to outsiders this all looks insane. Merely remember, after December, you'll have sisters the rest of your life. Congrats on going DZ, Sweetie! Love Always, Joe B. 10-13
