

STARTING SALARIES FROM $25,000 to $35,000

OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY

MBA

MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

A representative from the graduate business programs will be on campus to answer your questions about an MBA degree.

DATE: Friday, Nov. 7 TIMES & PLACES: 9-11:30 Interviews.....Counseling Center
12:30-1:30 Group Meetings.....Room 107, EMU

Curriculum designed for non-business majors
Liberal Arts, Sciences, Social Sciences, Business

Four-term program for qualified students (enter any term) - Professional social and academic environment - Employment opportunities with more than 200 firms visiting the career center each year.

*For more information, contact: Dr. William Browne, Graduate Business Programs
Oregon State University, Corvallis, OR 97331 (503) 754-3490

Sports

Ducks travel south to visit USC, UCLA

By Capi Lynn
Of the Emerald

The Oregon volleyball team embarks on its second straight road trip when it travels to Los Angeles, Calif., to face the worst and the best team in the Pacific-10 Conference this weekend.

The Ducks, 9-4 in conference play and 17-9 overall, confront the USC Trojans, 0-13 in the Pac-10 and 2-22 on the season, tonight.

Oregon is tied with Arizona State University for third place in the conference, while USC comfortably holds down the league cellar.

The Ducks easily downed the Trojans 15-8, 15-12, 15-11 earlier this year in McArthur Court and also defeated them in the UCLA National Invitational Volleyball Tournament 15-9, 15-5, 14-16, 15-4.

With the Ducks' two victories over USC, they evened up the all-time series between the schools at 2-2.

Although the Trojans, described as "a bomb ready to go off" by assistant coach Peg Rees, have failed to win a conference match, the Ducks are definitely not counting on a sure win.

"(USC) had improved quite a bit from the first time we played them to the NIVT," Rees said.

The Trojans have been plagued all season with injuries. Last week, USC traveled with only seven players (four of them walk-ons) as they were handed three Pac-10 defeats.

USC's losing string has stretched to eight straight matches. In its last eight conference matches, the Trojans have been outscored 24 games to two.

The Trojans have some consolation in that setter Kathy Rich, who has yet to play in 1986 because of a knee injury, will probably see her first action of the season this weekend.

"We're assuming that (the Trojans') injury situation has improved, and we expect them to be even better," Rees said. "There's no way we can look past them to UCLA."

The Ducks will meet with conference-leading UCLA Saturday night, however, and will attempt to record their first-ever win against the Bruins (UCLA leads the all-time series 5-0).

The Bruins, 12-1 in the Pac-10 and 24-7 overall, are ranked sixth (NCAA) and ninth (Tachikara/CVCA) in the nation and are coming off three straight conference victories last week, which enabled them to take a one-game lead over

Continued on Page 12

Oregon Mac Expo '86

November 12 & 13
Erb Memorial Union Ballroom

Sponsored by Apple Computer &
the University of Oregon Computing Center

- o Seminars
- o Drawing for Mac Plus each day *
- o Vendor Displays; including: Apple, Microsoft, ProVUE, Ann Arbor
- o Exhibits
- o Programmer's & Developer's Seminar
- o Speakers, including Guy Kawasaki
- o Free Admission

* Must be present to win

© 1985 Apple Computer, Inc. Apple and the Apple logo are registered trademarks of Apple Computer, Inc. Macintosh is a trademark of McIntosh Laboratory, Inc. and is being used with its express permission.

ARCADIAN FARMS N.W.
Horse Riding Lessons
"An Exercise Alternative"

2405 Bailey Hill Road
15 Minutes from U of O
484-5360

★ COPIES ★
Krazy Kats
Try Us!
884 East 13th st.

CLIP COUPON

1 FREE Soda
plus

10¢ OFF
any slice

Coupon good Mon - Sun

11:30 - Midnight, Mon. - Fri.
3:30 - Midnight, Weekends
1211 Alder on Campus
686-9598

Sy's
New York
Pizza

Expires Sunday, 11/9/86

CLIP COUPON

Friday, November 7, 1986