

Page 10

Page 27

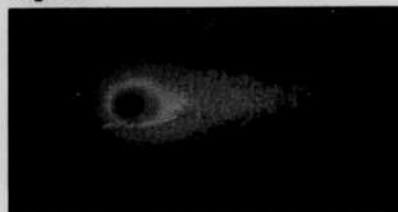

Page 56

Page 18

Page 45

Page 48

College Life

- Religion: A rebirth of campus piety Page 10
- Fundamentalists attack "liberal" Baylor Page 17
- Whither Catholic universities? Page 18
- Health: The all-too-common cold; folk remedies Page 20
- Behavior: Risky romance between students and profs; sexual harassment Page 22

Education

- A volunteerism surge; spurring students to do good; volunteer guides Page 27
- The University of Chicago and the life of the mind Page 32
- Update: A college rises from the ashes Page 34

Careers

- Working with the greatest stars of all Page 48
- Resumes: Penn's hard-nosed career guidance; University of Virginia alumni give liberal arts good marks; Merchandising for a stereo chain Page 53

Arts & Entertainment

- Movies: Leonard Nimoy—and Mr. Spock—take off again in "Star Trek IV"; a French-Canadian film that talks and talks about sex Page 54
- Books: Feminist Gloria Steinem's perspective on Marilyn Monroe; three outstanding—and affordable—photo books; ill-fated romanticism from novelist Manuel Puig Page 56
- Television: Building "Pee-wee's Playhouse" Page 66
- Music: Cream of the pre-Christmas LP's; classic blues and R&B from Chess Page 68

Departments

- Multiple Choice: Georgia Tech plays the stock market; a hairy trend; Texas Tech goes moony over a rock; Middlebury hosts a national radio forum on apartheid; Miami prof talks to fish—and they listen; a humorist-in-residence Page 45
- My Turn Page 70
- The Mail Page 5

Cover: Photo by Melchior DiGiacomo

© 1986 NEWSWEEK, INC. 444 MADISON AVENUE, NEW YORK, N.Y. 10022. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.