UO STUDENTS

TO UO STUDENTS:

Because the Oregon Daily Emerald is an optional student fee we offer refunds to students who have paid unwillingly for their newspaper subscription this term.

Students who do receive this refund are stating their intent not to read the Emerald throughout Winter term 1987.

Through Tuesday January 13, 1987 we will be refunding $1.99 to subscribers in room 300 of the EMU. Refunds will be given from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

But remember: The small cost of an Emerald subscription — 3.23¢ per issue per day — buys 3 months of news about your education, your administration and your weekend entertainment.

Victims evacuated

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) — Bomb threats Wednesday forced evacuation of hundreds of people from a hospital treating hotel fire survivors and an inn where officials of the ruined Dupont Plaza Hotel had set up a temporary office.

Seven sites in all were threatened but no bombs were found, and police said they found no connection between the threats and the hotel fire.

One building threatened was the Department of Justice, which is coordinating the investigation into the New Year's Eve blaze that killed 96 people and injured more than 140 at the 22-story, 439-room Dupont Plaza, a fire officially termed arson.

Justice Department workers stayed put, but at the State Medical Center, a few miles from downtown San Juan, about 300 people were evacuated for about three hours.

House approves probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House voted 416-2 Wednesday to investigate the Iran-Contra connection, with Democrats pledging a swift and fair proceeding and some Republicans warning that rampant partisanship could lead to "political cannibalism."

Even as the House was following the Senate's lead in chartering a select panel to delve into all aspects of the arms and money affair, several sources said that Lt. Col. Oliver North, from his National Security Council office, had managed cash and other funds to pay for the expenses of Nicaraguan rebels.

On Wednesday, the Justice Department ordered an FBI investigation into a break-in at the offices here of a group opposed to the Reagan administration's Central America policy.

Diplomats sent

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Reagan administration, weighing a fresh diplomatic approach to the war in Nicaragua, sent its two top Latin American specialists to Miami on Wednesday for secret talks on a new peace initiative backed by Costa Rica and Guatemala.

Assistant Secretary of State Elliott Abrams and special presidential envoy Philip Habib were holding the talks with Rodrigo Madrigal Nieto, the Costa Rican foreign minister, who flew to Miami on Wednesday morning. Nieto was seeking U.S. support for new overtures to Managua.

But a U.S. official who confirmed the mission was skeptical that the leftist Sandinista government in Managua was prepared to accept any formula designed to promote democracy in Nicaragua. "The Sandinistas will have to be pressured if there is to be a solution," the official said.

Committee head ousted

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democrats voted narrowly Wednesday to oust Rep. Les Aspin as chairman of the Armed Services Committee, a defeat caused by Aspin's support of the Reagan administration on the MX nuclear missile and aid to the Nicaraguan Contra rebels.

However, no successor to Aspin was elected, meaning he could rally and win back the chairmanship when the issue is finally decided Jan. 20.

The Wisconsin Democrat was voted out, 130-124, by a secret ballot only two years after he won the powerful post by engineering the ouster of the long-time chairman of the panel.

Some likely contenders for the spot include Reps. Marvin Leath of Texas, Charles Bennett of Florida, Patricia Schroeder of Colorado, and Nicholas Mavroules of Massachusetts.

PBS sought

EUGENE (AP) — Lane County Commissioner Jerry Rust says he wants to study the feasibility of local governments installing television translators to provide Oregon Public Broadcasting reception in the Eugene-Springfield area.

Rust said he will ask the board of commissioners to direct the county to investigate whether it would be practical to erect a network of translators that would carry the signal from Corvallis station KOAC-TV to the Eugene area.

Currently, KOAC-TV is available only to cable subscribers. Rust said his proposal grew from recent protests over Group W Cable's decision to move KOAC from channel 7 to channel 27. That means the station can be received only on the newer cable-ready television sets or with the assistance of a converter box.

Prison proposed

SALEM (AP) — Gov.-elect Neil Goldschmidt on Wednesday proposed a $54 million corrections and anti-crime program that includes more than 1,600 new prison beds.

Goldschmidt said the plan is part of the proposed 1987-89 state budget he'll submit to the Oregon Legislature when it convenes its 1987 session Monday.

Part of Goldschmidt's plan is to add 760 beds to the Eastern Oregon Correctional Institution at Pendleton.

A new part of his program would provide 900 new minimum-security beds, many of them to relieve crowding in existing prisons.

Goldschmidt said some beds likely will be in the Portland area, where much of the state's crime occurs because it's the most populous region.
