The Guarantee

You're covered if this stamp appears on the shelf tag under your coursebook.

GUARANTEED BOOK

Why? It's simple. Your professor turned in your text order to us on time.

Here is How it Works

The bookstore will guarantee to have the course books for each class in the quantities we expect to sell provided the course book requisition is delivered to the store on or before the specified due date. If we fail to have a course book on hand by the first day of registration, due to the publisher's shipments not received or the bookstore reducing the quantity, the bookstore will, at its expense, copy whatever portion of the course book necessary to meet class assignments, until the book arrives. Exception: books not available from the publisher for reasons beyond our control, imported books, and books delayed because of a natural disaster or transportation strike.

Here is How to Take Advantage of the Guarantee

1. Come to the Coursebook Information Counter at the Coursebook office on the second floor.
2. Fill out a coursebook special order form; our clerk will verify the information about the book you need.
3. You pay for the textbook now, and pick up your photocopies two days later, after 4:00 p.m. No charge.
4. When our book reorder arrives, you will exchange your photocopied pages for the textbook. (We'll airmail them at our expense.)

NOTE: You must bring your sales receipt with you when you pick up your book.
