Miller shines in Hula Bowl

By the Associated Press

HONOLULU, Hawaii. — The West beat the East in three college football all-star games over the weekend — the Hula Bowl at Honolulu, the Japan Bowl at Yokohama and the East-West Shrine Classic at Stanford, Calif.

At the Hula Bowl, two players with strong baseball backgrounds led the West to a 16-14 victory.

Oregon quarterback Chris Miller passed for 214 yards and a touchdown, while Southern California cornerback Louis Brock had two interceptions for the winners.

Brock, son of baseball Hall of Famer Lou Brock, also has played baseball at Southern Cal. But he may pursue a pro football career.

"I'd have to say I'm leaning to football because I have put a lot more time into it," he said. "Most of my training has been in football."

Miller has played minor league shortstop in the Seattle Mariners' organization. After the game, however, he didn't rule out pro football.

"I'm having a good time playing football now," he said.

Miller's 10 completions included a 4-yard touchdown pass to Washington's Lonzell Hill and passes of 55, 48 and 47 yards.

"I didn't get the opportunity to throw the long ball in college because the team had no deep threat," he said.

"Most people never hear too much about Oregon since we're near the bottom of the Pac-10 and on the West Coast," Miller added. "But now they know who I am."

In Japan, K.C. Clark of San Jose State intercepted three passes to spark the West's 24-17 victory.

"It seemed like I was just in the right place at the right time," he said after being named the game's outstanding defensive player.

Clark's final interception set up the West's winning score. In the fourth quarter, with his team trailing 17-16, he picked off a pass by Alabama's Mike Shula in the end zone and ran it back to his 34 before lateraling to teammate Mark Moore of Oklahoma State. Moore ran 18 yards to the East 48.

Three plays later, Matt Stevens of UCLA hit Stephen Baker of Fresno State with a 36-yard touchdown pass. Stevens then passed to Iowa's Robert Smith for a two-point conversion.

East quarterback Vinny Testaverde, the Heisman Trophy winner from Miami, completed 10 of 18 passes for 145 yards, but had three tosses intercepted. Stevens connected on 17 of 19 passes for 225 yards and two touchdowns.

"The second half we got a little ratty and really didn't play that well and kept letting them back into the game. Had we not done that, it may have saved a few nerves at the end of the game," he said.

But the coach had to be pleased with the first half, especially the way Drouet handled the press. The 5-foot-4 sparkplug set the tone for the Ducks by pushing the ball up the court with authority and was instrumental in establishing the Oregon half-court offense.

Heiny had to be pleased with his team's defense, which used their height advantage to intimidate the Beavers into a .306 shooting percentage for the first half. Kasperski got four of her six blocks in classic "in your face" style.

The Ducks hope that first half is indicative in tonight's upcoming contest against the University of Arizona. Oregon sits among the leaders in the Pac-10 with a 2-0 record (8-2 overall) and hopes to improve on that in the 7:30 game at McArthur Court.

The Wildcats have been struggling of late and are winless in the Pac-10 (0-3, 5-7 overall). They are coming off a rough weekend against the Los Angeles-area schools, losing to University of Southern California, 96-60, and UCLA, 66-55.
