Celebrating the dream...

More than 800 people (left, top left) participated in a peace march from South Eugene High School to the Hult Center on Friday as part of a weeklong observance of Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday. Other events included a performance by Moments Notice (above) at a multicultural fair at South Eugene High School on Saturday. Inspirational Sounds Gospel Choir (below) highlighted the seventh annual "Celebration of Humanity" in the EMU Ballroom on Sunday night, and Adiek Matthews (bottom left) celebrated the rededication of Eugene's Martin Luther King Park on Thursday with a piece of cake.

SOMETIMES, COLLEGE LIFE CAN BE ADDICTING...

...but it doesn't have to be. A possible alcohol or drug addiction problem can be solved, but first you need to understand it.

PROFESSIONAL COUNSELORS ARE AVAILABLE TO U OF O STUDENTS AT NO COST OR OBLIGATION.

If you or someone you care about might have a drug or alcohol addiction problem, you will have questions that need to be answered.

- When does drinking or drug use become a problem?
- When is treatment needed?
- How do I help a friend who needs treatment?

Calling or meeting with someone who can answer your questions will either ease your mind or be the first logical step in solving a difficult problem. Whichever one it is, it can only help.
