Oregon's Lauri Landerholm demonstrated perfect form against two University of Portland defenders Monday at McArthur Court, despite making just seven of 18 attempts. Landerholm scored 16 in the Ducks' 79-70 victory.

Pilots give Ducks fits

"Well, we won," said Elwin Heiny.

That's enough said by a coach whose team escaped the threshold of defeat against the likes of the University of Portland, a struggling, 4-12 team that entered the Division I world of women's college basketball just this season.

A fatigued Oregon team became their own worst enemy and overcame that, and then proceeded to put away the scrappy, hustling Portland Pilots, 79-70, in non-conference
