Assailants kill 12

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Assailants burst into a home in a black township near Durban on Wednesday and opened fire with automatic weapons, killing 12 people. Seven of the victims were children.

Mangosuthu Buthelezi, leader of Inkatha and chief minister of the KwaZulu homeland, said in a statement the deaths were "probably a continuation of the internecine clashes" between rival black groups in Natal province. Much of that fighting has been between Inkatha and the UDF.

Envoy meets with captors

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Anglican Church envoy Terry Waite has been meeting in a secret place with kidnappers who hold two Americans hostage, one of his escorts said Wednesday night, more than 24 hours after Waite dropped out of sight.

A second West German disappeared, apparently abducted.

A spokesman for Walid Jumblatt's Druse militia, speaking on condition of anonymity, said Waite would be allowed to "see and converse" with American hostages Terry Anderson and Thomas Sutherland during his talks with the captors.

Drug-testing plan OK'd

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Transportation Department and Congress began moving Wednesday toward requiring random drug-testing of airline and railroad industry employees, and the department said it plans to test 26,500 of its own workers as well.

Transportation Secretary Elizabeth Dole disclosed plans for the broad-ranging drug testing and rehabilitation program as several members of Congress said they will introduce drug-testing legislation in the coming days.

The whirlwind of activity involving random drug testing came a week after the disclosure that marijuana had been used by two Conrail train operators involved in a collision with an Amtrak passenger train Jan. 4.

Sixteen people were killed and 175 injured in the accident.

Senate overrides veto

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate handed President Reagan his first congressional defeat of 1987 on Wednesday by overwhelmingly passing a popular $20 billion water-quality bill identical to one he vetoed last year.

The action came after the Senate voted 82-17 against a less-costly alternative proposed by Reagan on Jan. 5 as way of softening the legislation's impact on federal budget deficits.

AuCoin chosen to watch

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Speaker Jim Wright on Wednesday named Rep. Les AuCoin as an official congressional observer to the U.S.-Soviet arms control negotiations in Geneva, Switzerland.

Wright, a Democrat from Texas, also reappointed AuCoin as Whip-at-Large, a party leadership post the Oregon congressman has held since 1985.

"Because of his position on the Defense Appropriations Subcommittee and his knowledge of the issues, Les is an outstanding choice as Geneva observer," said Wright. "He wrote the anti-satellite test ban. Les has consistently demonstrated his commitment to arms control."

The anti-satellite test ban is intended to prevent the Pentagon from violating the 1972 Anti-Ballistic Missile Treaty.

Eyes on the Prize

America's Civil Rights Years, 1954-1965

by Juan Williams

Companion volume to the six-part PBS television series.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON THE FREEDOM DEMOCRATS

Eyes on the Prize is the inspirational, fully illustrated account of the landmark struggle in which black Americans claimed their rights as citizens and began the second great American revolution.

Eyes on the Prize explores the movement through the eyes of the participants—a supremely moving, dramatic, and uplifting account; both the book and the series are educational and cultural MUSTS for all Americans.
