International Hostages threatened

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Moslem kidnappers said Thursday they will kill four men seized last weekend if U.S. military forces attack Lebanon, and they released a picture of an American captive with two automatic rifles held to his head.

Anglican Church envoy Terry Waite remained out of sight for the 10th day. He is negotiating with the captors of two Americans held since 1985.

The hostages threatened with death Thursday are three Americans and an Indian who graduated from the University in 1968.

National Arms account discovered

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Intelligence Committee has traced Iranian arms sales profits, apparently intended for Nicaragua's Contra rebels, to a secret Cayman Islands bank account, the panel's chairman said Thursday.

But Sen. David Boren said a newly written committee report has not yet determined "the ultimate resting place of this money." The report was to be released later Thursday.

Boren said the report includes "no direct evidence that would state" that President Reagan knew of the diversion or "that he directed the diversion of funds" to the Contras.

Bissell set free

SEATTLE (AP) — A federal magistrate ruled Thursday that a former member of the radical Weathermen could go free while awaiting trial on attempted bombing charges filed 17 years ago.

Silas Trim Bissell, 44, pleaded innocent to the charges during the Thursday hearing, and told Magistrate John Weinberg he would return to his Eugene home and show up for required court appearances.

"At what point does television go beyond educating and informing and begin promoting?" he asked, adding that broadcasters have to walk a tight line in that area.

"Maybe five years from now, these ads will be done tastefully and will be accepted by all segments of society," Putney said. "Condom manufacturers are in the same position sanitary napkin and other feminine protection manufacturers were in years ago. Now those ads are seen frequently."

The first condom ad was aired on KRON Wednesday, Valencia said. The station received about 150 phone calls, and the reaction from most viewers was favorable.

LOOK GUYS, NO KEG.

Just twist a cap and you've got beer on tap.
New Miller Genuine Draft® is real draft beer in a bottle. It's not heat-pasteurized, like most bottled beers. It's cold-filtered to give you the smoothness and freshness of draft beer from a keg.

No way, you say? Tasting is believing.

MILLER GENUINE DRAFT. IT'S BEER AT ITS BEST.
