

Find a Valentine's Day activity to warm your valentine's heart

Has wondering what to do on Valentine's Day got your heart in a knot? Don't despair. Here's a list of Valentine's Day activities to please even the most finicky of valentines:

Dig out a white tablecloth and a romantic record and invite your valentine over for a candlelight dinner complete with wine and dessert. Flowers add a special touch.

Add some spice to your love life. Set the table for two and order a heart-shaped pizza from Track Town Pizza, 1809 Franklin Blvd., 484-2799.

Satisfy your sweetie's sweet tooth. Pick up a heart-shaped cake from the Fall Creek Bakery, 881 E. 13th Ave.

Take your valentine for a soak at Onsen Hourly Hot Tub Rental, 1883 Garden St. For $10, you and your sweetie can soak away the week's tensions.

Make some popcorn and snuggle up to your valentine in front of some romantic movies. Rent a VCR and some classic films such as "Gone With The Wind" or "Casablanca."

Put on your dancing shoes and head to the Eugene Hilton for the Crazy 8s show. Admission of $7 advance and $9 the day of the show will treat you and your sweetheart to some of the Northwest's best tunes. Tickets are available at the Eugene Hilton, the EMU Main Desk, Everybody's Records, Valley River and Earth River Records.

For the sophisticated valentine, don your evening best and attend a performance of The Oregon Mozart Players at the Soreng Theatre in the Hult Center for the Performing Arts. Tickets are $9.50, $7.50 and $6 and are available at the Hult Center box office.

Take your same-sex sweetie to Dance for a Gay

Valentine's Day at the Wesley Center, 1236 Kincaid St. For $3, you and your valentine can dance to the sounds of Transister from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. Call 686-3360 for more information.

For the valentine you love more than words can express, go see Marcel Marceau at the Hult Center's Silva Concert Hall at 8 p.m. Tickets are $15, $13.50 and $10.50 and are available at the Hult Center box office.

Whisper sweet nothings in the ear of a faraway valentine. Talk to someone special in the continental United States free for three minutes at Valley River Center from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Put a smile on your valentine's face. Catch live comedy at Edison's Bar at The Factory restaurant, 4740 Main St., Springfield. The show starts at 9 p.m. and costs $5.

Treat your sweetheart to free cake and a flower at the Fifth Street Public Market. Cake will be served at 1 p.m., and flowers will be available from noon to 4 p.m. Also enjoy a serenade from a walking minstrel.

For the valentine with an artistic touch, check out some valentine motif collages by Maureen Culligan, on display at the Opus 5 Gallery, 136 E. Broadway.

Capture the romance of the '50s. Have a hamburger, fries and a thick chocolate malt at Jamie's Great Hamburgers, 2445 Hilyard St. or 1810 Chambers St. The '50s decor and style will have you and your sweetie humming a romantic tune of the times.

"Count the ways" you love your valentine with timeless prose. Head to the University Main Library and check out some classic poetry books.
