points on nine of 14 shooting from the floor and perfect stats at the free throw stripe. She also converted all three of her steals into driving layups to highlight another well-balanced performance.

"I hope it's showing how Lauri will finish the season. Lately she's been working hard and tonight she was...well, Lauri," Heiny commented.

In a game which Oregon never trailed, the Ducks very early set the tone for the contest by taking advantage of the size differential. With the score 6-4 Oregon, Kasperski banked in a Landerholm miss to begin a 12-0 run that would give the Ducks a huge 20-4 cushion at the 11:15 mark, leaving the hometown fans in a mixed fit of fury and disbelief. Meanwhile, a strong green-and-yellow contingent behind the Oregon bench was celebrating before the fact.

The closest the Beavers could get before the half was nine, but the Ducks held a 13-point margin at intermission, 36-23.

OSU came out and gave Oregon some of its own medicine at the start of the second half, however, scoring five straight and holding the Ducks scoreless for the first 3:12 until Landerholm scored off a nice feed from Semenik.

The Beavers twice drew within six, once on Brenda Arbuckle's layup off a Fonda Ducee steal to make it 40-34, and again on Jackson's jumper to pull within 42-36 with 13:45 remaining.

Landerholm responded to the challenge by scoring the next three baskets to key the Ducks' 14-0 spurt that put OSU away. It was not until the 6:02 mark that the Beavers scored again.

"The team really responded both offensively and defensively when we made small changes," Heiny said. "I was proud of the way we came back and got the lead again."

Although the Beavers forced 19 Oregon turnovers, the Ducks all felt they fared much better in this matchup than the first one last month, when the Ducks rallied for a 65-63 win at McArthur Court.

"We didn't allow the defense to really dominate us like it did in phases of the first game," Heiny said.
