HEY - For Spring and Summer housing: why not try a student COOPERATIVE? The Student Cooperative Association consists of Campbell Club and Janet Smith. Both houses are student owned and operated, which means that if you move in, you can actively participate in house government and proxies. We cook group meals, (people may choose to board only), meet as a group to discuss our goals and grates, take trips in the cooperative's van, and the house provides laundry facilities, utilities, a fund for gatherings, and a unique atmosphere of personal interaction.
If you need Spring or Summer housing, are bored with your present housing, or are just interested call 683-3777 for JS; 683-3453 for CC. 3-10

A Woody Allen film

Stardust

Memories

United Artists

(1980) In this surreal piece Woody Allen takes a look back at his role as filmmaker. This satire mocks film criticism, pseudo-intellectuals, hero worship and life. (B&W)

177 Lawrence 7&9pm

SATURDAY

Bob le Flambeur

(1955) This Capier Film revolves around an aging gentleman gambler looking for one last big score - the crime of the century. A masterpiece by one of France's most influential directors. (B&W)

180 PLC 9pm

Forty

GUNS

(1957) Fuller's most audacious and stylistically energetic western stars Barbara Stanwyck as the "woman with a whip," a rancher forced to turn her back to the law to protect her wanted brother. Presented in beautiful B&W cinemascopes.

180 PLC 7pm

SUNDAY

THE DAWN PATROL

(1930) This first talking picture by Hawks is a great action film never to be forgotten. It concerns the trials and moral problems of an undermanned and outgunned air squadron in the midst of The Great War. (B&W)
