

WELL NOW

A Student Health Center Newsletter

AIDS

"... is a sexually transmitted disease that is reaching epidemic proportions in Oregon. This disease does not discriminate on the basis of sexual orientation and ALL SEXUALLY ACTIVE PERSONS are at risk. Encouraging the use of condoms is one of the most important ways we can slow the spread of the disease in our state."

- State of Oregon Health Division