Captive urges exchange

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Hostage Jesse Turner warned in a videotape released by his Moslem kidnappers Thursday that fellow American captive Alann Steen would die "in a few hours." Turner appealed to the United States to pressure Israel to free 400 Arab prisoners. The Islamic Jihad for the Liberation of Palestine, which holds him and three others, had made the demand.

"We feel that his life will be over in a few hours," said Turner. Previous communiques from the Islamic Jihad said Steen, 47, was dangerously ill and might die. It cited high blood pressure and breathing difficulties. The group said Steen's illness prompted it to renew its offer of the swap, which Israel has rejected.

Soviets tell of defection

MOSCOW (AP) — The Kremlin announced Thursday an American soldier and his West German wife had defected to the Soviet Union and been granted asylum because they feared political persecution. The U.S. Army in West Germany and the Pentagon in Washington could not confirm the defection, which would be the first by an American serviceman to the Soviet Union since the Vietnam War.

The Pentagon issued a statement, however, saying it was investigating an enlisted man with a name similar to that announced by the Soviets who had deserted in West Germany a month ago. It said it was not certain if he was the same person. The report came at a time when the U.S. Embassy in Moscow was trying to deal with two former Marine guards who have been charged with espionage.

Senate overrides veto

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate rejected a personal, last-minute plea from President Reagan and voted Thursday to override his veto and enact into law an $88 billion highway and mass transit bill. The 67-33 vote capped two days of political struggle over the bill that became a high-stakes test of wills between the president and leaders of the Senate's Democratic majority.

Besides authorizing highway and mass transit projects that the president had opposed, the bill permits states to boost the speed limit on rural stretches of interstate highways to 65 miles per hour from the current 55 mph. Reagan issued a statement saying he was "deeply disappointed" by the outcome but vowing to continue the battle against excessive federal spending.

IRS requires new form

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you're buying or selling a home, you may be affected by the federal government's newest effort to catch tax cheats. Anyone who sells a home after Dec. 31, 1986, is required to file a report with the Internal Revenue Service. Any cost of filing the simple form — some lawyers are charging as much as $150 — would have to be absorbed by the buyer or seller.

The IRS will match the form against the seller's tax return to determine if any taxable profit from the sale was reported as income. The report was required as part of last year's tax overhaul.

Coast Guard holds drill

PORTLAND (AP) — The U.S. Coast Guard has held a drill in which officials are forced to respond to a disaster in which a barge hits a Willamette River pier. The exercise Wednesday was carried out on paper at a Jantzen Beach hotel as Coast Guardsmen and 150 local public and business officials dealt with an imaginary oil spill and a chlorine gas leak that killed six people.

Such a disaster would have forced the evacuation of the entire St. Johns area. The chances of such a disaster are remote, said Capt. George Casimir, commanding officer of the Coast Guard's Marine Safety Office in Portland. Even so, the Coast Guard wants to be ready in case there is a major oil spill with life-threatening ramifications.

Unemployment bill loses

SALEM (AP) — A bill to allow workers locked out of jobs in labor disputes to draw unemployment benefits lost on a tie vote Thursday in the Senate but was expected to be reconsidered Friday. The measure would revise a current law under which employees who are out of work because of labor disputes involving either lockouts or strikes aren't eligible for unemployment benefits.
