Shultz relays optimism

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Secretary of State George P. Shultz expressed optimism in Moscow about reaching an accord on eliminating medium-range nuclear missiles from Europe and flew to Brussels to consult with NATO allies.

"We will consult, and I am sure, come to a good conclusion," Shultz said before leaving Moscow, where he held three days of meetings with Soviet officials, including Kremlin leader Mikhail S. Gorbachev, who made new arms proposals.

Soviet Foreign Minister Eduard A. Shevardnadze told Shultz on Wednesday the Soviets would eliminate their shorter-range missiles in the Soviet Union within a year after Senate ratification of a proposed treaty on medium-range missiles.

said Wednesday.

The Justice Department, which investigated Hatfield's support for businessman Basil Tsakos's proposal to build an oil pipeline across Africa, closed that probe after finding no basis on which to prosecute the senator, spokesman Patrick Korten said.

Hinckley's mail asked for WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal judge, told that John W. Hinckley Jr. corresponded with Florida death-row inmate Theodore Bundy, wants to review the presidential assailant's letters and papers to help evaluate his mental condition.

Hinckley, who is seeking a 12-hour Easter pass from the mental hospital where he was sent for shooting President Reagan in 1981, was ordered to produce all his letters, notes, postcards, poems and other writings.

U.S. District Judge Barrington Parker issued the order Tuesday after learning Hinckley corresponded several times last year with Bundy, who is awaiting execution for the 1978 killings of two women Florida State University students and a 12-year-old girl.

Hatfield case dropped

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department has decided not to prosecute Sen. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore., over his relationship with a Greek businessman who paid $55,000 in real estate fees to Hatfield's wife, a department spokesman

Carter found innocent

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (AP) — A jury found Amy Carter, Abbie Hoffman and 13 other protesters innocent Wednesday of charges stemming from a demonstration last fall against CIA recruiters at the University of Massachusetts.

The six-member jury announced the verdict to a courtroom packed with 130 spectators about three hours after they began deliberations. Hampshire County District Court Judge Richard Connon cleared the chamber after the reading of the first verdict was greeted with thunderous applause.

Coos Bay schools reopen

Coos Bay schools reopened with replacement teachers Wednesday, hours after all-night negotiations broke off on the verge of a settlement in an 9-day-old strike.

Each side blamed the other for failing to make the final concession needed to end the walkout. No new talks were scheduled, and officials of the Coos Bay School District said negotiations likely would not resume until the weekend at the soonest.
