

LECTURES

The Public Relations Student Society of America is sponsoring a talk by Linda Weston of the Eugene-Springfield Convention and Visitors Bureau tonight at 5 in 301A Allen.

Student Activities Resource Office is sponsoring a seminar, "Life in Organizations Beyond College" as part of its Beyond College series today at 4 in the EMU Forum Room.

Professor Prince Subhadradis Diskul will give an illustrated talk, "Thai Classical Art," tonight at 7:30 in Room 128 Chiles Center.

MEETINGS

Undergraduate Economics Association will hold an organizational meeting tonight at 5:30 in Room 412 PLC.

Circle K Service Club meets tonight at 6 in Cedar Room E in the EMU. District Gov. Ray Everett will be the special guest.

Telecommunications and Film Association will hold a meeting regarding internships tonight at 6 in Room 204 Villard Hall.

MISCELLANEOUS

University Outdoor Program will hold an introductory whitewater rafting workshop tonight at 7:30 in the Outdoor Program room in the EMU basement.

Academic Advising and Student Services is sponsoring a workshop "Interested in Elementary Education?" today at 3:30 p.m. in 164 Oregon Hall.

Witness for Peace will hold a fund-raising reception to support an Oregon delegation to Nicaragua tonight from 5 to 6:30 at the Newman Center, 1850 Emerald St.

Writer wins award

Gary Henley, a free-lance writer for the Oregon Daily Emerald, has won 18th place for sports writing in the William Randolph Hearst Foundation Journalism Awards Program. An article on the three-point play rule introduced in NCAA basketball this past season earned the award.

The sports writing category was the final Hearst competition for the 1986-87 academic. Overall, the Oregon Daily Emerald placed 10th nationally in total Hearst awards received.

'Mr. Right'

Continued from Page 6

the angry husband of Stone's oversexed friend, Trish, asks him belligerently, "What do you know about Trish, tough guy?" Ulysses replies matter-of-factly, "Trish really likes sex."

Seidelman's direction of these two characters doesn't bring out enough emotional involvement, and writers Floyd Byars and Laurie Frank don't give them much meat to gnaw on either.

But the script writers did do a good job of weaving a tale of breakneck-paced insanity peopled with genuinely funny caricatures. And Seidelman did do a good job directing these aspects of the material.

Many scenes include hilarious incidents that occur because of the idiosyncrasies of the characters.

Ulysses acquires his knowledge of Trish's love of sex when he arrives at Frankie's house, and Trish, who's staying there because she's left her philandering husband, jumps him.

Ulysses' circuits haven't been programmed to deal with the stimulation, and he ends up on the kitchen floor with his pants down and his head spun around backwards.

Another appealing aspect of this film is its campy, space-aged set design, kind of like a cross between new wave and the Jetsons.

'Prejudice'

Continued from Page 6

Eventually, it is these two opposing forces that meet and set the stage for the fabled "High Noon" showdown.

Where many movies of its genre have failed, "Extreme Prejudice," keeps on smoking with an exciting and fast-paced subplot involving government undercover agents circling around the action between Ben-teen and Bailey.

But probably the movie's most enjoyable aspect is its abundance of slapstick humor, delivered by a potent group of both seasoned and up-and-coming actors. The movie borders the serious, funny and absurd all at once.

Beavers

Continued from Page 8

rallies in the fifth and sixth innings.

Oregon assistant coach John Rittman commented, "we just let them have the momentum. In the first game, we got the key hits, but in the second game, they were getting the key hits and we just didn't do anything."

With the split, Oregon's record goes to 20-27. King said she doesn't expect to miss any action, and hopefully for the Ducks she won't, as Oregon will need her bat when they face OSU in another double-header, Sunday at 2:00 p.m. at Howe Field.

CAREER WEEK '87

Putting it all together

"Hot Jobs for the 90's"

Thomas Fauria, Ph.D., Employee's Assistance Program

"Life in Organizations"

- Gretchen Hult-Pierce, Hult Associates
- Mary Burroughs, Former State Representative
- John Martz, Papé Caterpillar
- Ralph Lafferty, Zipco Lumber Company
- Judge Lori Smith, District Court Judge

Thursday, April 30 3:30 - 6:00 pm

Forum Room - Erb Memorial Union

SPONSORED BY: Career Planning & Placement Service

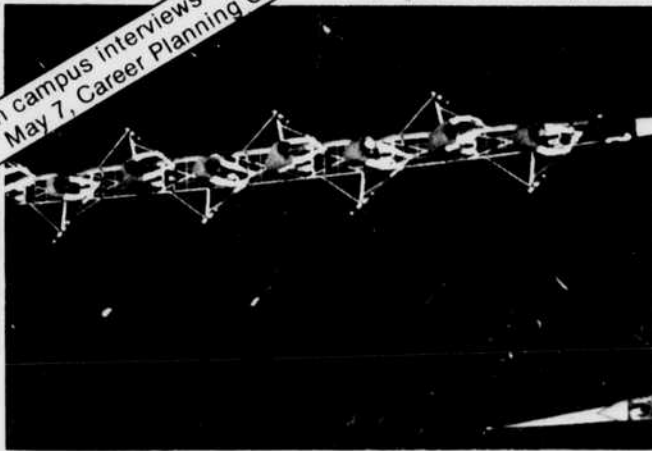

The Druids

SARO Interns

Schedule of Events available from CPPS 244 Hendricks Hall 696-3235

On campus interviews to be held May 7, Career Planning Office

SUCCEEDING IN FINANCIAL SERVICES DEPENDS ON THE TEAM YOU JOIN.

COME TO NEW ENGLAND.

The New England we speak of is just that—The New England.

At The New England, our training, technology and products are all of the first rank. Our course work includes programs in marketing, tax law and financial planning, among others. We provide sophisticated hardware and software tools to help you meet your clients' needs. And our array of products includes life insurance, mutual funds and employee benefits.

For more information, come to New England. The New England.

NIE The New England
Your Financial Partner

The New England
2525 SW 1st Ave.
Suite 290
Portland, Oregon 97201
(503) 228-6645

RIVERFRONT RESEARCH PARK

You are invited to attend an ISSUES EXCHANGE

about the

Riverfront Research Park

Wednesday, May 6, 1987

The Ballroom, Erb Memorial Union,

University of Oregon

13th Avenue at University Street

7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.

University of Oregon President Paul Olum is hosting an opportunity for the public to discuss social, philosophical, and political issues related to the Riverfront Research Park project. Issues identified for discussion are classified and proprietary research, site location, pollution and toxic waste, and adequacy of the public process. Other issues may be introduced at the exchange.

We encourage you to attend and participate. In order to help us plan for this event, we would appreciate your advance response. Thank you.

Riverfront Research Park Issues Exchange

Yes, I'll be there on May 6.  No, I can't attend.*

Name _____ please print

Address _____

Phone _____

*Comments in writing may also be submitted to the address below.

Mail to: City of Eugene Development Department
72 West Broadway, Suite 213
Eugene, Oregon 97401