

University acknowledges student standouts

Twenty-five students were recognized for their contributions to the University at a ceremony on Saturday afternoon.

ASUO Vice President Caitlin Cameron received the Ray Hawk Award, established in 1982 to be presented to an outstanding student of the senior class.

Joelilyn Murillo was awarded the Gerlinger Cup, established in 1914.

The Bess Templeton Cristman Award, established in 1980 for junior women students with scholastic accomplishment and demonstrated leadership, went to Karen Engels.

Jerry Mathewson received the Koyl Cup, which has been awarded since 1914 to outstanding male members of the junior class on the basis of leadership, service and academic achievement.

The Maurice Hunter Leadership Scholarship went to Jerry Olson and Emil Wilson. The scholarship, awarded since 1947, is for junior men.

Tonya Dakin received the Vernon Barkhurst Award, established in 1984 to be awarded to a sophomore who best exemplifies academic excellence, University service and good citizenship.

Soledad Bastiancich received the The Golda Wickam Award, which is given by the Oregon Mothers Club.

Fourteen students were awarded the Dean's Award for Service, which was inaugurated in 1983 as a way of recognizing some of the service contributions made by University students to both the University and to other students. Award winners are Gwyneth Hamaker, Frale De Guzman, Shannon Meehan, Stephen Nelson, Ole Morompi, Soledad Bastiancich, Mary Kay Menard, Patricia McGuire, Timothy Corrigan, Steven Frichette, Debra Liebowitz, Sarah Lachkar, Donald Rich and Susan Guild.

Harold Kuphaldt received the Emerald Athletic Award, sponsored jointly by the Athletic Department and the Oregon Daily Emerald to be presented to a senior athlete on the basis of achievement in athletics, service and scholarship.

The Doyle Higdon Memorial Trophy went to Scott Kozak for excellence, scholarship and citizenship.

Alison Gundry received the American Association of University Women Award for character, personality and scholarship.

The sorority Delta Delta Delta was awarded the Burt Brown Barker Vice Presidential Cup. This year there was no award for the men's living organizations.
