

Palm trees and pool key to party success

Graduation bash: variations on a theme

By Angela Muniz
and Ingrid White

Of the Emerald

Never let it be said that college students don't know how to throw a party.

After life in the dorms, New Year's Eve parties, Memorial Day weekends and at least four years of education, graduates soon will be leaving the University with pomp and circumstance.

Stereotypes aside, giving a party that will be remembered as the last college party is no easy task. The host must consider a variety of things ranging from the theme to the food.

One good theme can make or break the party.

First, there is the standby vacation theme. This sort of party offers a very relaxed atmosphere with all of the guests wearing those bright, gaudy vacation prints. Now honestly, do people really wear those clothes in public?

Keeping Mohammed in mind, if the party can't go to the beach, bring the beach to the party. Rent a pool, rent some sand, and throw in a few palm trees. Don't hesitate to have some fun.

Photo by Maria Corvallis

Graduation parties offer people the opportunity to look back on the years spent in college — and to celebrate one last time.

If tradition is important, the old alma mater theme comes in handy. This incorporates several possible subthemes.

Going for the classic motif, one can rent a ballroom, or a hotel room, or a country club.

Or a pool and a few palm trees.

The ballroom will accommodate the large number of relatives invited to celebrate the grand occasion. Graduations are

Turn to Party, Page 4B

NORTH BANK RESTAURANT & LOUNGE

"TWILIGHT SPECIALS"

Select any of these complete entrees any day of the week (including soup, salad, bread, rice, pilaf and fresh vegetables) by 6:00 p.m. at the following reduced prices.*

SMALL SIRLOIN.....	$7.95
FRESH RED SNAPPER.....	$6.95
BROCHETTE OF BEEF.....	$6.95
CHICKEN TERIYAKI.....	$6.95
FRESH RAINBOW TROUT.....	$6.95

*Salad Bar Exclusion Price Not Available

GRADUATION SUNDAY
DINNER SERVED FROM 3 pm - 9 pm

22 CLUB ROAD

(On the bike path overlooking the river)

RESERVATIONS ACCEPTED PHONE 343-5622

What's a Kestrel?

Kestrel 'Kestr l 1, a common small falcon (falco-tinnunculus) noted for its habit of hovering in the air. Common name SPARROW HAWK

2. Eugene's Newest Cafe featuring Chemical free meats, Creole specialties, unique waffles and fruit pancakes.

Great Food
at Affordable
prices

kestrel
cafe

Open every day

7 AM - 3PM 454 WILLAMETTE

Congratulations!

Good Luck
Graduates

From
Track Town Pizza

Why settle for less... than the BEST!?!

FREE DELIVERY

(Limited delivery area)

484-2799

1809 Franklin Blvd.

