

1987 commencement events calendar

The University graduation ceremony will be held at Autzen Stadium this year because of construction at Hayward Field. The commencement speaker will be A. Bartlett Giamatti, president of major league baseball's National League and former president of Yale University.

Graduates and their family and friends will gather first at Autzen. With the exception of the College of Education, the graduates and their guests will then move from the stadium to their departmental and school receptions at 2:30 p.m.

If the weather prohibits use of Autzen Stadium, the commencement will be held at McArthur Court. A decision to move the ceremonies inside will be announced on Eugene/Springfield radio stations by 5 a.m. on the day of commencement.

The College of Education has decided to hold its ceremony at 9 a.m., prior to the Autzen Stadium gathering, at the Education Courtyard.

The other departments and schools will meet at the following locations:

•School of Architecture and Allied Arts: Memorial Quadrangle between the University Library and the University Museum of Art. In the event of rain, the ceremony will be in the EMU Ballroom.

•College of Arts and Sciences: Autzen Stadium. If it rains, the ceremony will be in McArthur Court.

•College of Business Administration: Cuthbert Amphitheatre in Alton Baker Park. If it rains, the ceremony will be held in Esslinger Hall gymnasium.

•College of Human Development and Performance: Room

220 Gerlinger Hall.

•School of Journalism: West of Allen Hall. If it rains, the ceremony will be held at South Eugene High School Auditorium.

•School of Music: Beall Concert Hall.
