The REGISTER-GUARD IS ACCEPTING applications for a part-time reporter trainee to work nights and weekends as a police and general assignment reporter. The job will require the trainee to perform a variety of non-reporting duties, such as filling out forms on video display terminal, gathering information by phone and occasionally in person, and writing news and some feature articles under the supervision of an editor.

Work shifts will generally begin after 6 pm, extend as late as 1:30 am, and can include Friday through Sunday, back to back shifts.

Applicants must have no more than 2 years of professional journalism experience and must submit a letter of introduction that will be used, in part, to evaluate the applicant's ability to organize and present information in written form. The letter should explain how the applicant became interested in newspaper journalism and state the applicant's career objectives. The letter must be accompanied by a resume and three examples of the applicant's writing. (Writing samples will not be returned.)

Interested and qualified applicants must apply no later than 5 pm, Wednesday, June 3, 1987 to: Reporter Trainee Personnel Dept. The Register-Guard PO Box 10188 Eugene, OR 97440

NO TELEPHONE INQUIRIES PLEASE. All applicants will be notified of the status of their application by June 30th, 1987.
