ASUO Senate approves appointments

By Caroline Lamberson
 Of the Emerald

The Student Senate approved several executive appointments and elected some of its 1987-88 officers on June 5.

The Senate approved the appointment of Jeff Leonhardt to the ASUO Constitution Court. Leonhardt is a former student senator.

Former ASUO State Affairs Coordinator Manuel Rivera received confirmation as a board member for Student Projects, Inc.

James Chesemore and Katy Howard were re-appointed to the ASUO Health Insurance Committee. ASUO Vice President Karen Gaffney was also confirmed as a member of that committee.

The Senate also appointed student Senator Corey Wynn to the Associated Student President's Advisory Council (ASPAC).

Karen Frymoyer was voted as chairwoman for the 1987-88 Student Senate. Frymoyer is currently serving the second half of her two-year Senate term.

The vice-chairman position went to Jon Kisling, also in his second year on the Senate.

Peter Paulson was elected as the Committee on Committee chairman. This committee is responsible for appointing people to more than 80 different University student-faculty committees.

The Information and Grievance director for next year will be Alicia Sloan. She will be in charge of the grievance and information booth located on the main floor of the EMU.

The Senate also elected Eric Grimes as next year's press secretary.

When the Senate meets again next fall, they will elect an executive secretary, the vice president of the University Senate and a representative to the University Senate Rules Committee.

MEETINGS

The UO/UES Sister University Project will meet June 10 at 4:30 in Century A room of the EMU. A slide show will be presented.

LECTURES

The Lane County Chapter of the American Red Cross will offer two free classes about disasters in the coming weeks.

"Introduction to Disasters," which includes basic information about disasters and their affects, the role of the Red Cross and other agencies, and how the Red Cross provides disaster relief services will be held June 9 from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

A shelter management workshop to train shelter workers will be held June 16 and 23 from 7 to 9:30 p.m. "Introduction to Disasters" is a prerequisite for the class. For more information, call 344-5244.

MISCELLANEOUS

Birth To Three will sponsor a panel discussion entitled "Fathering Today: Changes, Challenges, New Opportunities," tonight from 7 to 9:30 at the Central Presbyterian Church, 1475 Ferry. The panel members will be University President Paul Olum, Larry Maltz, Bob Bury, and Steve Marks-Fife.

Tracing services are provided by the Lane County American Red Cross for civilians looking for relatives and friends in other countries who have been separated as a result of war, civil disturbance, disaster, or changing world conditions. The service is free. For more information contact the chapter office 344-5244.

The Easter Seal Center will hold a free screening clinic Saturday, June 13 between 9:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. for parents of children from birth to five-years-old in an attempt to answer concerns regarding their child's development. The event will be sponsored by the Lane County Council on Early Intervention and will take place at the Easter Seal Center, 3575 Donald St.
