Ems entertain record numbers

By Gary Henley
Of the Emerald

Entertainment at the all-American game has fans showing up in record numbers since the Eugene Emeralds opened their 1987 season June 16.

The Emeralds are the minor league, Class-A affiliate of the Kansas City Royals.

For local residents, taking in an Ems game provides an escape for a few hours three or four nights a week during the hot summer months — a chance to get some fresh air, spend some time with friends, or give the kids something to do.

Jason Damon, an eighth-grader at Kennedy Middle School, is one of many kids who can be seen obtaining player autographs before the games. "I just like baseball. I like it when they win," he said, adding that he sees a lot of friends at the games.

"Entertainment and a lack of better things to do," is why Rick Brandsness attends the games, and his wife Linda said "getting to know the fans is the whole point of coming."

The Eugene Emeralds are drawing record crowds to Civic Stadium this summer. A variety of contests at the ballpark add to the entertainment.

Promotional nights help draw fans to Civic Stadium. Promotions include Bat Night, Seat-Cushion Night, Helmet Night, Cap Night as well as others, such as the fireworks display scheduled after the Ems' July 4th game.

Fans have the chance to win prizes at each game if they guess the game's attendance or answer Emeralds' General Manager "Bob Beban's Stumper Question," a sports trivia question.

There's also a Home Run for the Money contest, in which a few lucky fans can win a cash
