"Somehow, Director Lasse Hallstrom has caught all the perils and delights of treading that knife edge between pain and delight that is childhood blending to adolescence. A sterling film." Sheila Benson, L.A. Times

JEAN de FLORETTE

"This film is like good peasant bread: honest, chewy and heavily satisfying. A tragicomedy of time and place - 1920's southern France, where various interests are fighting over a lone natural spring. 'Jean de Florette' is zestfully well acted by Gerard Depardieu and Yves Montand." Sheila Benson, L.A. Times
