Many activities kick off school year

By John Carlson

Of the Emerald

An inaugural Freshman Convocation will be the first in a series of events that traditionally kick off the beginning of a new school year.

This first-time event, put together by ASUO University Affairs Coordinator Tim Regan, will give incoming freshmen a chance to meet with the deans of the University's professional schools, as well as ASUO President Kasey Brooks.

The Freshman Convocation takes place the first day of New Student Week on Monday, Sept. 21, in the EMU Ballroom at 2:30 p.m. Highlighting the event will be remarks by University President Paul Olum.

Two days later on Wednesday, Sept. 23, the annual ASUO Street Faire begins. The festivities include booths offering a wide range of arts and crafts, as well as samplings of different foods. Entertainment ranging from musicians to jugglers will also be featured in the three-day event, which concludes on Friday, Sept. 25, the last day of fall registration.

The Faire will be open from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. all three days.

On Monday, Oct. 5, this year's University Convocation joins in the bicentennial celebration of the U.S. Constitution. Stanley Katz, a Bicentennial Professor of the History of American Law and Liberty at Princeton University, will deliver the keynote address at 2:00 p.m. in the EMU Ballroom.

Katz, who also is president of the American Council of Learned Societies, will focus his speech on "Constitutionalism and the Constitution." Following his address, University faculty members will lead several seminars at various locations on campus. The day concludes with an evening of music and drama celebrating this 200th anniversary of the U.S. Constitution.

Then beginning Monday, Oct. 19, the annual five-day Fall Symposium begins. This year the Symposium coincides with National Drug and Alcohol Awareness week.

Monday's topic is physical fitness. One of the speakers scheduled to appear is Residence Hall Program Assistant Vanessa Sykes.

Tuesday will feature a panel discussion on mental wellness. ASUO Events Coordinator Angeline Chong said she hopes to have representatives from Sacred Heart General Hospital, Eugene Clinic, and White Bird Clinic, in order to provide a diverse perspective on the issues.

Chong said the day's discussions will focus on the legal status of the mentally unstable.

Wednesday's topic will address safe sex. Highlighting the day's activities will be an appearance by Richard and Debbie Carper. The Eugene couple are former intravenous drug users who both have contracted AIDS-related complex, or ARC.

Thursday's subject is drug and alcohol awareness. Greek Adviser Neal Dorow will speak, as well as Michael Leeds, who coordinates drug and alcohol awareness programs. Groups such as Greek organizations and dormitories utilize his programs to gain a better understanding and awareness of potential drug and alcohol problems.

The final day, Friday Oct. 23, is tentatively scheduled to be a wrap-up day.
