

Put more MUSIC in your life

School of Music classes and activities are for all students, not just for music majors. Look at the ways you can include music in your schedule while at the University of Oregon:

For More Information About School of Music Activities, Inquire at the Main Desk or Call 686-3761

School
UNIVERSITY OF OREGON
of MUSIC

Join a Performing Group

Performing can be a part of your university life. More than 20 performing groups are open to all students. Placements and auditions are September 21-23 at the School of Music. Membership lists for late registration will be provided September 28-30 for the following groups:

- Oregon Wind Ensemble
- University Symphony
- University Singers
- Jazz Lab Bands
- Vocal Jazz Ensemble
- Sinfonietta
- Women's Chorus
- Brass Choir
- Collegium Musicum
- Gospel Ensemble
- Song and Dance Troupe
- Percussion Ensemble
- Small Instrumental Ensembles
- Small Choral Ensembles

You may register for the following groups without an audition:

- Oregon Marching Band
- Symphonic Band
- Men's Chorus

Broaden Your Knowledge of Music

These classes are open to all students, regardless of previous musical background or experience:

- Introduction to Music and Its Literature (meets arts and letters cluster requirement)
- Basic Music
- History of Jazz
- Music in World Cultures
(all the above meet arts and letters group requirements)
- Classic Symphony and Sonata
- Music of Bach and Handel
- Introduction of 20th Century Music
- Class Piano
- Class Guitar

Take a Minor in Music

Choose a minimum of 27 credits from a prescribed outline of courses, including classes that satisfy the arts and letters cluster requirement, performing ensembles, and individual studies. Thus, music can be part of any degree program.

Come to the Faculty Musicale September 24

If you want to learn more about School of Music activities, come to a special concert, Thursday, September 24, in Beall Concert Hall at 7:00 PM. Faculty members will present a varied program. A public reception with refreshments will follow, where you can meet with faculty members and get answers to your questions. The concert and reception are free!