

Mom Continued from Page 6

"She's more of a friend than a mother," Beta member David Morrelly said.

For her part, Frymoyer calls her job "the most fun thing I've done in my whole life."

Frymoyer often socializes with the Beta members, attending tailgater parties, going on bicycle rides, and supporting the fraternity at intramural events.

"She's respected around here. If you have a problem or anything, you talk to her," member Bill Phinney said.

Ann Frymoyer, the house mother at Beta Theta Pi, adds diversity to fraternity life. The house was the first campus fraternity to employ a woman for such a position.
