

With time winding down in the first half, James took a gamble. After Devin Fitzpatrick pulled Chandler down for a five-yard loss, James elected to go for it on fourth-and-eight from the Oregon 46.

"We had decided to go for it if we had fewer than five yards to go, but eight yards might have been pushing it," James said. Fullback Aaron Jenkins took the snap out of punt formation, but was stopped a yard short of the first down.

Oregon's receivers had a decided advantage in speed over the Husky defensive backfield, and Musgrave found one after another in one-on-one coverage.

"We put them in the flat on a linebacker and it was a real mismatch; our backs and receivers were just too quick for them," Musgrave said.

Birden, Obee and Parker all beat linebacker coverage to move the Ducks downfield. When the drive stalled at the Husky 36, Dennis hit the 53-yard field goal like it was routine.

The 44,421 crowd broke the previous Autzen Stadium record, set when Washington came to town in 1985.

It was the largest crowd ever assembled in the state for an athletic event, and those in attendance made Autzen the fourth-most populous place in the state Saturday, eclipsing the population of Corvallis by about 2,000.
