

Police Beat

The following is a list of some campus-area crimes reported to Campus Security and the Eugene Police Department between Oct. 1 and Oct. 8.

- A break-in occurred at the Pi Beta Phi sorority house between 2:30 and 2:50 a.m. on Oct. 1. The house mother was awakened by a prowler and called the Eugene Police Department. Two officers responded, but could find no suspects. The next morning they discovered a window to a basement storage room had been forced open, but nothing had been stolen.

- Two women were the victims of a public indecency incident on the second floor of the main library on Oct. 3. The suspect, described as a black male, exposed himself to the women in a book aisle. The incident was reported to the EPD.

- A fourth-degree assault took place in the EMU breezeway at 1:30 a.m. on Oct. 4. The suspect knocked the victim off his bicycle, and then pushed him at least four times. The victim suffered minor bruises and cuts. Two other men appeared on the scene and persuaded the suspect to go with them. The incident was reported to the EPD.

- A film rented by Catalyst Films was stolen on Oct. 5. The movie, valued at $600, was titled "Led Zeppelin: the Song Remains the Same." After United Parcel Service delivered the film to the ASUO office in EMU Suite 4, it was left at the common mail/package distribution area shared by the student organizations. The movie was stolen from the area between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. The theft was reported to the EPD, but there are no suspects.

- Vandals set a garbage can on fire inside 135 Gilbert Hall on the night of Oct. 6. Campus Security responded at 9 p.m. and found a half-melted garbage can engulfed in flames, which they extinguished. There are no suspects.

- Campus Security arrested a white male transient for criminal trespassing on Oct. 6. The arrest took place in the vicinity of 15th Avenue and Onyx Street on University property at approximately 12:15 a.m. The man was following female students, and was suspected of entering a female student's dorm room earlier that day. Campus Security turned the suspect over to the EPD, and he was lodged in the Lane County jail.

- Campus Security reported 13 bicycle thefts. They recovered two bicycles, a moped, and a motorcycle.

Computer art focus of conference

The latest in computer animation serving fields as varying as journalism and medicine will be on display at the Northwest Computer Graphics Conference in Eugene Oct. 25-27. "Early-bird" registration rates — $45 for University students, faculty and staff — are effective for registration forms post-marked no later than today.

Experts will present information on how computers assist in production for the print media and reconstructive surgery, as well as how to make images appear lifelike.

Academic credit for the conference is available at no extra cost to full-time students who register for the conference.

For more information, contact the Continuation Center, 686-3537.
