WELLNESS WEEK FALL '87

On Campus at U of O

Tuesday, October 20th MENTAL HEALTH DAY

12:00-2:00pm MENTAL HEALTH

Dr. Rubel from Sacred Heart Hospital, Eating Disorder Department, will discuss the issues of weight and body image and eating disorders.

4:00-6:00pm QUESTIONING A STUDENT'S
MENTAL HEALTH STATUS

Lucy Kaplan from the Office of Student Advocacy and Joe Wade, chair of the Bizarre Behavior Committee, will discuss: the rights of students in jeopardy of their safety as a result of other students harmful behavior, the rights of students faced with university recommendations for psychologically-based leaves of absence, and university responses to the need of students exhibiting erratic or potentially harmful behavior.

7:00-10:00pm LIFESTYLES

This session will focus on the alternate lifestyles among a variety of individuals. This group includes two members from GALA on campus, a member from the Sanctuary Movement who fled his country, an individual who has chosen to be celibate and an individual who lived in a commune. Facilitating the discussion will be a psychologist and mediator. This event should be lively and interesting.
