WILD RIVERS

Take tomorrow off and float the Willamette in a show of support for preserving Oregon's wild rivers. A group of advocates of river preservation will float a two mile section of the Willamette to the capitol building in Salem. This flotilla is the beginning of a drive to collect enough signatures to put a river protection bill on the ballot. Join us! For more info, stop by the Outdoor Program in the basement of the EMU or call 686-4365.
