

Black Mambazo, The Nylons play Hult

The Nylons (above) brings its brand of "rockapella" to the Hult Center's Silva Concert Hall at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 2, in support of its third album "Happy Together."

The group, originally from Toronto, Canada, has been a cult favorite there for the last six years before striking international fame with the recent "Kiss Him Goodbye" and "Happy Together" singles.

Reserve seating tickets are still available at Hult Center outlets for $15.50 and $13.50.

Ladysmith Black Mambazo (below), the acapella band that achieved national recognition for its contribution to Paul Simon's "Graceland" album will be in Eugene at the Hult Center's Silva Concert Hall tonight at 8 p.m.

The South African band is touring in support of its latest album "Shaka Zulu," Ladysmith Black Mambazo's first release for Warner Brothers records.

Reserve seating tickets are still available at Hult Center outlets.
