CULTURAL FORUM FILMS

FRIDAY 150 GEOLOGY
7 and 9:30 pm

Peter O'Toole • Barbara Hershey

SATURDAY 180 PLC
7 and 9 pm

Harold Pinter's
BETRAYAL

Adapted from Harold Pinter's play, this unusual film is about a publisher (Ben Kingsley) who discovers his wife (Patricia Hodge) has been having an affair with his best friend (Jeremy Irons) for seven years. But as with any Pinter work, the familiar situation is given a startling twist. Directed by David Jones. Voted the best film of the year by The National Board of Review in 1983. 95 min.

Lindsay Anderson's comic odyssey of a trainee salesman (Malcolm McDowell) who becomes an international financier before settling down as a do-gooder. Co-stars Ralph Richardson, Helen Mirren, Mona Washbourne and Rachel Roberts. 1973. England, 165 min.

WED DOUBLEFEATURE
Starts at 7 pm
150 Geology

DON'T LOOK NOW - The first half of the British classic II double feature stars Julie Christie and Donald Sutherland as a couple who, after losing their only child, vacation in Vienna and encounter two old female spiritualists who believe they can communicate with their dead daughter. Nicholas Roeg directed this intricate, haunting thriller in 1973. 110 min. 7 pm.

THE KNACK - The second feature is set in mod London, where a sex-starved teacher (Michael Crawford) lets one room of his house to a successful swinger (Ray Brooks), then another room to an innocent girl (Rita Tushingham) from the provinces. Directed by Richard Lester in 1965. 84 min. Shows at 9 pm.
