

EMU doesn't die in the summer; it cuts hours

By Kelvin Wee
Emerald Managing Editor

The Erb Memorial Union (EMU) will be open this summer, but with shorter hours than during the regular school year.

The building will open until August 14 at 7 a.m. each weekday, closing at 7 p.m. from Monday to Thursday, and 4 p.m. Fridays.

The EMU will be closed weekends with exception of June 25, 26, July 17, 23, 24 and 30.

After the eight-week summer session, the EMU also will remain open. Its hours from August 15 to September 17 will be even shorter, opening only from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on weekdays only.

Regular hours will resume on September 18.

Most services in the EMU also will be open. The EMU Administration and ASUO offices will be open weekdays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. regardless of building hours.

Both offices will continue full operation even after the summer session is over.

The EMU Food Services will continue serving during the summer as well. The Fountain Court Cafe will be open 7 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.; the Fishbowl will be open at 9 a.m. while the Breezeway Cafe will be open 7 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The EMU Main Desk will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. from Monday to Thursday, and from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. Fridays. It will be open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. after August 15.

The EMU Copy Center will operate from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. weekdays, and the EMU Recreation Center will be open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The recreation center will open after August 15. The EMU Craft Center will be open from 10 a.m. to 6:45 p.m. from Monday to Thursday and from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Fridays. No hours are known for the Craft Center after August 15.

The University Bookstore branch in the EMU, the Computer Shoppe, will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. from Mondays to Thursdays, and from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Fridays. It will be open after August 15.

Other student services located in the EMU may be open this summer. No hours have been posted for these groups. The branches of student government — Student Senate, Incidental Fee Committee and EMU Board of Directors — will function in the summer. The ASUO Offices of Student Advocacy, Legal Services and Mediation Services also will open this summer.

The Off-Campus Housing Office will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturdays.

Other student programs will open sporadically. Students interested in these programs should call the program offices for operation hours.

A listing of student programs and services, and telephone numbers can be found in the University Student Directory.

Student Government

The ASUO has been occupied mostly with bureaucratic matters for the last two weeks, according to ASUO Vice President Steve Hoyt.

"We've been getting the staff assimilated in the office and looking at the files," said Hoyt.

With finals week and the short summer break preoccupying the time of most students, not much has been happening in student government circles recently.

Hoyt and ASUO President Karen Gaffney have been working with various student unions to continue pursuing the Monette-Butler affirmative action grievance against the University School of Law.

The grievance reached the desk of State Board of Higher Education Chancellor William E. "Bud" Davis last week, who denied the appeal of Monette and Butler. Davis ruled that University law students Richard Monette and David Butler did not have standing to file the affirmative action suit.

Hoyt said he was disappointed with the decision of the appeal, saying that Attorney General Dave Frohnmayer had earlier opined that Monette and Butler did have standing.

Gaffney has been working on reaching a new agreement with Prudential Insurance over points and loopholes with the current ASUO health insurance plan, including a spousal equivalency coverage.

Hoyt is also pursuing the
