The University's Human Services Department is organizing a support club. A kick-off potluck is scheduled for 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday at Skinner's Butte Park. All majors, potential majors, family members and friends are encouraged to attend. Barbecues will be available. For more information, call 726-0933.

German students past and present: Bring a friend and join the German Club for a hike Saturday to Three Mile Lake on the coast. Trip sheets are posted on the club bulletin board across from Friendly Room 202. Also, join 40 students from Germany at Stammtisch every Wednesday at 8 p.m. For more information contact Helmut Plant, faculty adviser, in Friendly Room 312 or a 686-4059.

Campus Life in the Spirit Weekend will be presented by the People of Praise Campus

Outreach on Friday from 7 to 9:30 p.m. and Saturday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Newman Center, 1850 Emerald St. For more information and registration, call 746-8438 or 342-8462.

The City of Eugene Neighborhood Boundary Review Advisory Committee continues to seek opinions on its proposal to redraw existing neighborhood group boundaries. Citizens can learn more about the changes by attending one of four public information sessions scheduled through July 27. For details, call the City of Eugene Neighborhood Office at 687-5009.

Big Brother/Big Sister Program of Mid-Oregon is currently seeking volunteers. Those interested can call 747-6632 for more information.

Volunteer opportunities are available through the YMCA Voluntary Action Center.

Special Mobility Services needs a driver two to three hours a week to transport housebound seniors to medical appointments and other local destinations. Use of agency vehicle or mileage reimbursement is available.

The Eugene Hearing and Speech Annex wants a receptionist one to two days a week. The volunteer will greet people, answer phones, sell batteries and answer questions regarding broken hearing aids. Training and a free hearing screening is provided.

For information about these and other resume-building opportunities, contact a volunteer counselor at the Eugene Family YMCA at 686-9622.

MEETINGS

Campus Information Exchange Council meets Friday at 8 p.m. in PLC Room 311.

Laurel Hill Valley Citizens Association meets today at 7:30 p.m. at Laurel Hill School, 2621 Agusta St. Agenda items include plans for a park playground and presentation of the proposed Laurel Hill School program.

LECTURES

"Lest Innocent Blood Be Shed" by Dr. Yowko Ichioka-Richardson will be presented at 10 a.m. Sunday at the Springfield Church of the Brethren, 1072 Math St. The lecture is about helping refugees in the French village of Le Chambon during World War II.
