How have the televised presidential and vice presidential debates affected your view and opinion of the candidates?

'I basically haven't watched much of the debates. I believe I prefer to vote Dukakis. He seems a more honorable, impressionable man than Bush. The debates do bring about more thoughts and make people more aware.'

— Spencer Williams, junior, leisure studies

'I've only seen one debate personally and I'm still iffy. Neither of the candidates are answering questions on social issues;.... I'm worried that if I vote for Dukakis the economy will go bad; if not, more money will be spent on arms and things.'

— Terri Clark, sophomore, art education

'I was pretty amazed at how small Dukakis really is. He's a little wimp. I'm definitely going to vote for Bush. I don't think political slander is good, but it seems to be the thing of the 80's.'

— Mike Lee, junior, business

'I'm watching closely the way the American elections are going on. The debate will give an overall view to America, of the candidates potential qualities.'

— Tan Khoon Hui, graduate student in practicum training, business
