"I think we have to concentrate on putting the loss behind us and focus on the rest of the season," Lake said. "We have to salvage our goals, and I think one of our biggest goals is to go to the Rose Bowl, so hopefully we can achieve those things, but it's going to be tough. Obviously Oregon is no joke, they are a real good team and we are going to play our best to stay with them."

Lake does not believe the Webfoot's loss of quarterback Bill Musgrave — out for the season with a broken collarbone — that the Bruins defense will have it any easier against backup-now-starter Pete Nelson.

"I seem to think that when a player has a chance to show what he can do it seems like he has his best performance," Lake said. "I'm going to give the starting quarterback this week all the respect that I would give Musgrave."

Lake, who grew up in Salt Lake City, moved to Los Angeles at the age of seven. He
