

There's only one school in the U.S. where students can express themselves freely.

If you've got a U of O photo ID card and a current term sticker, you can express yourself on the bus. Any time. Anywhere. Free! Just show your card to the bus driver and get carried away. To and from campus. The downtown or Valley River malls. The games at Autzen and Mac Court. Out to Fern Ridge. Up the McKenzie.

Your fare for the term is included in your student incidental fees. This service is provided in cooperation with the Associated Students - University of Oregon.

Express Yourself!
