

Duck wrestlers smash OSU in last Civil War

The Oregon wrestling team crushed arch-rival Oregon State 27-8 at Gill Coliseum in Corvallis on Sunday, completing a sweep of the Civil War series in its final tune-up for the Pacific-10 Conference championships.

The Beavers didn't win a single match, scoring all their points from the four draws of the afternoon. The victory raised Oregon's record to 12-3, 7-2 in the Pac-10, with the win. OSU fell to 10-13-1, 2-4 in the Pac-10.

Oregon grabbed an early 10-0 lead with wins by Dan Vidlak at 118 lbs., Rob Stone at 126 lbs., and Glenn Jarrett at 134 lbs. Scott Glenn and George Johnston drew at 142 lbs. and 150 lbs., respectively. Then Oregon won three straight by John Wagner at 158 lbs., Eric Messner at 167 lbs., and Curt Strahm at 177 lbs. Two more draws by Scott Myers at 190 lbs., and James Knott in the heavyweight division finished the meet.

Next on the schedule for the Ducks are the Pac-10 championships Feb. 26-27 in Tempe, Ariz.

Bellotti chosen as new offensive coordinator for Oregon football

Mike Bellotti on Friday became the fourth assistant to serve as offensive coordinator for head coach Rich Brooks in the last 12 seasons.

Bellotti, 38, head coach at Chico (Calif.) State for the past five years, was appointed Friday as the offensive coordinator for Oregon football. He will also coach the Ducks' quarterbacks. Bellotti will begin his duties Feb. 20.

Bellotti replaces Bob Toledo, who resigned Jan. 12 to take the offensive coordinator position at Texas A & M.

After nearly a one month search for a new coordinator, Brooks found the man he wanted.

"Mike is a bright, innovative coach that has done a very good job in a difficult situation, playing a difficult schedule at a school that doesn't give scholarships," Brooks said.

Bellotti, who guided Cal-State Chico to a 21-25-2 record during his five years at the helm, is also looking forward to coaching in Division I football.

"I'm very excited and very nervous," Bellotti said. "Coaching at Oregon is a tremendous opportunity, one I could not afford to pass up. I'm in a situation that's very comfortable."
