Oregon's Trina McCartney played the entire 40 minutes, and contributed 20 points and eight rebounds to key the Duck win.

than what we showed tonight." Duck head coach Elwin Heiny said after the game.

The Beavers, needing a win to snap a six-game losing streak, seemed to have discovered an effective way to shut down the Duck offense and appeared, while holding a 44-31 lead with 15:23 remaining in the game, well on their way to their first win over the Webfoots since 1985.

The Beavers relied upon the hot hand of forward Yasmin Gray, who hit 10 of 18 shots from the field for a game-high 23 points, to keep OSU in the game. Not until Stefanie Kasperski was moved out of the middle to defense Gray did the Ducks, down 52-41 with 9:41 left to play, begin to mount a 19-3 scoring run, keyed by Kasperski (22 points, seven rebounds) and Trina McCartney (20 points, eight rebounds) to close out the game.

"Trina played 40 minutes and didn't show that many signs of tiring," Heiny said. "It was important for us. Stefanie did not have her best night, and she did not play nearly as well as she wanted to."

The Ducks grabbed their first lead of the night with just 58 seconds left in the contest after Jacquie Semeniuk found McCartney alone under the basket for the last of her five assists on the night, tying an Oregon season record (171, set by Lauri Landerholm in 1986-87).

The Ducks' Staci Wallenborn takes Chelle Flamoe to the hoop, and more often than not, Oregon players wound up shooting free throws as a result of 26 Beaver fouls.

Seconds before, Semeniuk set a halfcourt pick for McCartney which floored both herself and OSU forward Shanna Daniels. Daniels, who, according to one observer, lost a tooth on the play, remained stunned on the floor while Semeniuk recovered to create a five-on-four opportunity for the Ducks and found a wide open McCartney for two, giving the Webfoots a 57-55 lead.

The Beaver pressure defense

again posed some major problems for the Ducks, causing 20 turnovers and, after a Cynthia Daniels steal with 16 seconds left and the Ducks leading, 57-55, nearly doing the Webfoots in. However, Daniels blew the layup and pressure defense proved a major factor in the Duck comeback, causing both 26 personal fouls — resulting in 31 Duck points from the foul line — and four OSU player disqualifications.
