ning off first-game winner Robyn Burgess, who took over for Cassidy after the first inning.

Vicki Fry bunted back to the pitcher and reached on an error by Burgess. Cavanaugh then walked, and Fry scored on a deep single by Kathy Gray. Senner then delivered a run-scoring single. Gray went to third on the play and then scored on a wild pitch to give Wiese all the support she would need.

Senner had two of the Ducks' three hits in the nightcap and drove in two runs. Before the day, Senner had been 0-9 on the season against California.

The Golden Bears threatened in the fifth by loading the bases after an apparent double play by the Ducks was wiped away on a catcher interference call. Wiese got out of the inning on a fielder's choice and a fly out.

From there it was business as usual for Wiese, who ran her record to 24-7 on the season.

"I was a little nervous in the first game," Wiese said. "There was a lot of people I knew here today, and everybody else on the team had people here to watch them. It makes it a lot more fun for everybody with family and friends watching you."

"I felt more relaxed after getting a head start (in the second game)," Wiese added. "I had been over the first game jitters by then."

In the opener, Wiese threw four scoreless innings before the Golden Bears scratched together a run. Heather Smittle singled, advanced to second, went to third on a hit by Marielle Vaughn and then scored on a passed ball.

The Ducks squandered an opportunity in the third with runners on second and third with two out, but Burgess fanned Senner to end the threat.

California added an important insurance run in the seventh on another Smittle single and a costly error with two out.

Oregon tried to rally in the seventh when Stacey Funderburg got an infield hit, and Fry reached on a fielder's choice. Cavanaugh singled to center to load the bases. Gray drove in Funderburg with a single, but Burgess got Senner to ground out as the Golden Bears hung on for the win.

Besides the victory over California, Wilson was also happy that lead off hitter Kim Manning will be available for Saturday's doubleheader with sixth-ranked Arizona. Manning is currently second on the team with a .327 batting average.

"We really haven't had a lead off hitter for two and a half weeks, and the biggest factor is that we haven't really been hitting since that time," Wilson said.

The Ducks also gained a split with Portland State on Saturday, winning the opener 6-1 and dropping the second game 4-3.

Wiese won the first game with a four-hitter. Gray and Senner sported the big bats on the day, as each drove in three runs.

In the nightcap Jan Larson took the loss for Oregon in the nightcap to fall to 8-5 on the season. The Ducks had a 3-0 lead going into the bottom of the fifth when the Vikings erupted for four runs while batting around in the inning.
