THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON NEEDS YOU TO

Make a difference!
You may ask how you, a single individual can make a difference to U of O? BY BEING A HOST!!!

A host is:

- * Someone who welcomes new students to the University.
- * An upperclass person that answers questions of new students.
- * A friend to attend new student week activities.
- * The right arm of the STUDENT ORIENTATION STAFF.

What's involved?

- * This is a volunteer, flexible, part-time position during New Student Week Sept. 17-23.
- * You will be hooked-up with 10 to 15 incoming students to provide information, survival tactics and general fun!!
- * You will help the student orientation staff execute all the exciting new student week activities.
- * And most importantly, you get leadership and communication skills, new friends, resume material and a free shirt!!

What you need to do is sign-up and attend two training sessions (food will be provided) on May 13th and September 16th (both Saturdays). We'll send you additional information, as Spring term progresses. You can sign up by coming to 364 Oregon Hall by April 14th. If you have any questions you can call 686-3216 for more information.
