Men's tennis takes easy wins at Willamette

John Early gave the Oregon men's tennis team a pair of 6-0 shutouts as the team romped past Willamette University 9-0 in Salem Wednesday.

Early skunked Chris Meier twice at No. 6 singles. The Bearcats were able to extend the Ducks out to three sets in three of the matches, but couldn't pull out any victories.

In Oregon's other singles triumphs, James Hazard pounded Kelley Tuttle 6-2, 6-2 at No. 1, Kevin Cory ripped David Jerke 6-1, 6-1 at No. 2, Brian Copeland held off John Lovell 4-6, 6-4, 6-2 at No. 3, Carlos Gomez prevailed over Jeff Himstreet 7-6, 3-6, 6-1 at No. 4, and Richard Shugar blasted Dean Meyer 6-1, 6-2 at the No. 5 position.

Doubles action provided the Ducks with both easy and difficult victories. Cory and Hazard topped Jerke and Tuttle in a 5-7, 7-5, 6-3 marathon at No. 1, while Peter Bartlett and Jon Weinberg defeated Himstreet and Lovell 6-2, 7-6 at No. 2.

A trip to southeastern Washington is next on the schedule for the Oregon men. The Ducks face Washington State in a neutral site dual at Kennewick on Saturday, then square off against Whitman College in Walla Walla on Sunday.

The duals against the Cougars and Missionaries are the team's final tuneups for the Pac-10 Northern Division championships, slated for April 28-29 in Eugene.

The win raised the Ducks' record to 12-8 overall. They remain 0-2 in the Pacific-10 Conference Northern Division.
