LECTURES

"Covering Apartheid: Values and Objectivity in TV Reporting" is the title of a lecture by David Gelber, a producer for CBS's "60 Minutes," tonight at 7:30 in Allen Room 221.

"Regionalism Transgressed: The Place-Related Thingness of William Carlos Williams as Painted by Sheeler, Demuth and Hartley" is the title of a lecture by James Dennis, art history professor at the University of Wisconsin, tonight at 7:30 in Lawrence Room 107. The presentation is sponsored by the Humanities Center as The Colin Ruagh Thomas O'Fallon Memorial Lecture on Art and American Culture.

MISCELLANEOUS

"Fleisch," a German film, will be shown tonight at 7 in Friendly Room 217. Sponsored by the German Club.

"The War Between the Classes" is the subject of a Lunchtime Psychology Series presentation Tuesday at 11:30 a.m. in the EMU Forum Room. Jerry Diller and Carey Tanaka will moderate the session, which features a film showing high school students playing a "Color Game" to experience what it's like to be a member of a different race. Session will focus on stereotypes, peer pressure and racial injustice. A discussion will follow.

American Cancer Society, Oregon Division, Inc. is recruiting volunteer staff for its camping program for children who have cancer and their families. Call Janet at 295-6422 for applications and job descriptions. Need not be in medicine to apply.

Deadline for submitting Et als to the Emerald front desk, EMU Suite 300, is noon the day before publication. Et als are run the day of the event unless the event occurs before noon. Events with a donation or admission charge will not be considered. Campus events and those scheduled nearest the publication date will be given priority. The Emerald reserves the right to edit notices for grammar and style.
