

Winning feeling

Mark Ruggiero (left) celebrates after capturing a silver medal in the high jump competition Sunday at the 20th annual Oregon Special Olympics Summer Games at Hayward Field. Keith Cheesman (above) receives his gold medal for the 200-meter race. The three day event brought together 1,300 mentally retarded adults and children from throughout Oregon to compete in a wide array of events including track and field, volleyball, weightlifting, gymnastics and soccer.
