An Appeal to the University Community

The recent ASUO election was marred by many personal attacks and threats of violence to lesbians and gays. As faculty members, we are deeply concerned about these attacks. They are the signs of a very disturbing atmosphere on this campus. Just as we condemn all racist and sexual harassment, so we condemn all harassment of gays and lesbians. Subtle and not so subtle attacks and threats to gays and lesbians cannot be tolerated, nor can silent complicity. We appeal to all members of the University community to establish a climate where such behavior is unacceptable. We particularly appeal to students to join us in making it very clear that the University of Oregon is not a place where bigotry of any kind is tolerated.
